

30 July 1959

MEMORANDUM FOR: Colonel White, DDS

1. Reference Memo For The Record, 24 July 1959, by [REDACTED] Building Planning Staff, re laying of the cornerstone of the new building, herewith some ideas you may wish to consider:

STATINTL

(1) Instead of the Air Force Band, why not secure the Marine Band since Mr. Dulles' son was a Marine? (This eliminates Army, Navy and Air.)

(2) Re Clergymen: Recommend a Protestant clergyman, a Roman Catholic, and a Rabbi participate. The Roman Catholic--unless one of high Church office is secured--might well be the brother of General Donovan.

(3) Guests might include:

Veterans of the OSS
The Joint Chiefs of Staff
The Majority and Minority leaders and the Whips
of the House and Senate
The officials of McLean and Langley, Virginia
The Governor of Virginia
The Board of Trade of Fairfax County (Chamber of Commerce)
The Commissioner of Highways of Virginia
Congressmen Broyhill, Harrison, and Smith of Virginia and Senator Byrd
The Commissioners of the District of Columbia

(4) Any program of events, furnished to the public, should bear the Union label and be dignified and simple and inexpensive.

STATINTL

(6) A hassle between religious groups will be avoided by not having Masonic or Knights of Columbus or B'nai B'rith participation, whether by individuals, organizations, or by the use of an "historic" trowel.
